Dear Mr. Pfeiffer:

Agreeable to your instructions, I have ordered a certified copy of the papers filed in the Kesselring divorce suit. I note that the petitioner charges that Mary Kesselring lived in adultery with one, Harry Ray, at 602 First Street, Hoboken, New Jersey, October and November 1896. The case apparently was heard by Vice Chancellor Henry C. Pitney at Jersey City on November 8, 1897, though as yet I have been unable to ascertain who was the stenographer who transcribed the testimony. Vice Chancellor Pitney is now deceased.

Very truly yours,
